

Mark A. Maki,
Vice President, Finance,
Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P.

Mark A. Maki has served as Vice President, Finance for Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P. since August 2002 and also serves as the principal financial officer for Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P. in the United States.

Mark has more than 20 years of experience in accounting, regulatory, internal audit and management for Enbridge in the United States and Canada. As vice president, he is responsible for the income tax, internal audit, natural gas accounting, risk management, credit, SEC reporting, and overall accounting and information systems functions for Enbridge in the U.S.

Previously, Mark served as controller for Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P.; controller for Enbridge Pipelines, Inc.; and held various other managerial and accounting positions for the company since 1986. He is presently a member of the audit subcommittee for the American Petroleum Institute.

He received his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Wisconsin at Superior and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

