

Terrance L. McGill

President,
Enbridge Energy Company, Inc.

As President of Enbridge Energy Company, Inc., Terrance “Terry” L. McGill is responsible for all Enbridge-owned assets in the United States, including Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P. and Enbridge (U.S.) Inc. He is also a member of the board of directors of Enbridge Energy Company, Inc. and Enbridge Energy Management, L.L.C.

Terry has more than 30 years of diversified experience in the natural gas industry with a particular emphasis on interstate transportation and contract negotiations. He also has been extensively involved in marketing, short- and long-term gas transportation, gathering, gas supply procurement and business analysis and planning.

Prior to joining Enbridge Energy Company, Inc. in 2002 as vice president of Commercial Activity and Business Development for U.S. Gas Transportation, Terry was president of Columbia Gulf Transmission Company and senior vice president of Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation. He has held various executive positions with Transwestern Pipeline Company and Northern Natural Gas Company.

He is a member of the board of directors for the Houston Chapter of the American Red Cross and serves as chairman of that organization’s Health & Safety Committee. Terry is a former chairman of the Texas Pipeline Association and was a member of the North American Energy Standards Board. He has served as a member of the board of directors of the Southern Gas Association; on the executive board of the New Mexico Oil and Gas Association; and on the Pacific Coast Gas Association executive marketing board. Terry has also served as vice chairman of the United Way of the Texas Gulf Coast campaign.

Terry received his bachelor’s degree in finance from the University of Houston.

